

Amity township lifts burn ban

Published: Wednesday, August 03, 2011

http://www.berksmontnews.com/articles/2011/08/03/southern_berks_news/news/doc4e384dfc5eabc509541673.txt

Amity Township officials have lifted the burn ban that has been in place since July 21.

Township Fire Marshal James A. Munda said the ban was lifted effective Friday because of recent rainfall.

The ban, which prohibited all open burning and fireworks, was implemented because of hot and dry weather in the area.